

>> past PDFs

Take dad out for a meal, with a side of sports, this Father's Day

By Emily Mathis

Special to amNewYork

Sunday is a busy day for sports fans — a slew of baseball games will be on (including Rays-Mets and Yankees-Marlins games) and the Sonoma Nascar race is taking place. It's also Father's Day.

Though the ol' guy may be content watching the games on TV, don't let his big day turn into just another lazy Sunday. Enjoy a good meal alongside a helping of games at one of these upscale sports lounges.

The Hill

416 Third Ave., btwn 29th and 30th sts., 212-481-1712

With 25 high-def TVs, this may be the best bet for fans of a wide variety of sports or dads with adult ADD. The two-level sports bar feels like an upscale cabin, with brown leather seating and wooden walls.

All day and night Sunday, enjoy $10 pitchers of sangria and favorite dishes such as the $12 Hill Burger.